Mr. Lawrence E. Houston
C I A , 2430 E St. N.W.
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Houston,

Herebelow I quote a paragraph from a columnist's article, published yesterday:

"Our so-called Central Intelligence Agency is a stupid thing with millions to squander on useless "reports" and rumors and subsidies to unreliable "allies" etc."

This is a verbatim copy, widely publicized.

STATINTL

It brings to my mind the [redacted] case. In several

STATINTL letters I brought to your attention the [redacted] swindling

STATINTL landgrab. The only reason for dealing with them was their allegation of [redacted] employment by the CIA. You chose to repudiate any responsibility of the CIA agency, for the private life of one of your employees. What do you think the big majority of the American public will think?

I am ,
sincerely,

deBobula/
